

VISITORS DRESS CODE

All visitors to HMP Humber must be dressed appropriately at all times, which will assist in our aim to create a supportive family atmosphere as part of the Reducing Reoffending and Decency agenda.

This instruction applies to all visitors to the establishment regardless of age and gender.

At HMP Humber it is considered to be inappropriate to wear the following types of clothing:

- Short / cropped tops that reveal naked midriff.
- Low cut tops or shirts that unbutton to reveal cleavage or bare chest.
- Vests (as a single garment)
- Mini-skirts that are shorter than knee length and expose thighs.
- Shorts that are shorter than knee length and expose thighs.
- All types of see-through clothing.
- Headwear (other than for religious purposes).
- Clothing that is offensive in nature or displays offensive discriminatory, or inappropriate material including logo's or vigils of sport team's
- Ripped clothing (including jeans)
- Cloaks, capes, scarves or other articles that could prevent staff from observing visitors and prisoners sufficiently.
- No boots higher than ankle height
- No steel toe caps
- No clothing which is deemed to have the potential to be used as a weapon.
- No multiple layers of the same item of clothing, ie. two jackets, two pairs of trousers, etc.
- No padded coats or jackets.
- No hi-vis coats or jackets.

You will be given one verbal warning and any visitor that does not comply with this dress code after the warning will not be permitted entry to HMP Humber at the discretion of the visits staff.