Disclosure of Criminal Records

LAT actively promotes equality of opportunity for all and welcomes applications from a wide range of candidates. LAT recognises the contribution that people with criminal records can make as employees and volunteers, and welcomes applications from those with a criminal record. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

Due to the nature of this role, it is exempt from the requirements of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. Applicants are therefore required to declare any previous criminal convictions or cautions, spent or unspent, which would not be filtered by the Disclosure and Barring Service. However, we do not require you to disclose these at the application stage. Should your application be progressed, we ask you disclose any convictions during the interview. If you have convictions to disclose, you may do this either verbally during the interview, or as a written statement to bring to the interview. Any information disclosed will be treated in the strictest confidence.

We will then consider any information disclosed separately to the competencies demonstrated during the interview. Disclosures will be looked at on an individual basis, taking into account the following:

- whether it's information we are legally allowed to consider
- whether each offence is relevant to the position applied for
- the seriousness of each offence
- your age at the time of the offence(s)

- the length of time since the offence(s)
- whether there is a pattern of offending behaviour
- the circumstances surrounding the offence(s) and the explanations provided
- whether the circumstances have changed since

LAT will seek confirmation of criminal history from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) before confirming the appointment of any person to this role. It is important to understand that failure to declare at interview any convictions or cautions, including disciplinary action, that are subsequently made known to the employer on a DBS check may be grounds for instant dismissal.
